

New Year in Bellavista .. Home from Home!!

This New Year, come and celebrate with us in Bellavista, deep in the cloud forests of the Tandayapa Valley, a New Year to remember and share with your family and friends, and with the small and close Bellavista Lodge community.... Bellavista is known for its amazing variety of hummingbirds, its toucans and trails into the mysterious forest and to hidden waterfalls, and of course its amazing location that has given it its appropriate name .. Bellavista, Beautiful View.

Imagine something very different from what you know at home, a celebration that also includes New Year's Eve favourite foods ... turkey and great desserts!

Our usual guided hikes and other activities within Bellavista and optional trips into the surrounding region will be available over the New Year period. And of course our Geodesic Dome will have been decorated for the festive season ... !! After dusk, we will serve mulled wine to begin the celebrations, and a warming soup as well ...

Dinner itself will be served at 10.30 p.m., following Ecuadorian custom. We will enjoy turkey with all the trimmings.. or a vegetarian option, accompanied by quality Chilean wine . And then a variety of homemade desserts, and finally organic Ecuadorian coffee, or tea..

Expect Ecuadorian traditions around the farewell to the Old Year and welcome to the New Year .. effigies of the Old Year, a bonfire, Chilean champagne to welcome in the New Year ... and more (surprises)!!

Additional cost of just US$25 per person including taxes, over and above usual overnight / package costs, children under 13 years old half price (US$12.50 per person).

Welcome !
